A special thank you to our Sunday School children for singing and teachers for organizing the music at our Easter morning service at 7:30 a.m. It was great to see so many children and families at the Easter morning service

Thank you to everyone who donated candy and helped organize the Easter egg hunt for the Sunday School children. Our church was truly alive on Easter morning as the children scouted for the hidden eggs!

Last day of confirmation class was April 26th. Thank you to Sandi Braun-Ziemer and Paula Dhaene for stepping in and taking over confirmation classes when Pastor Deb retired. They tried some new curriculum, fun new events, and the kids had a great time together.

As confirmation wraps up we encourage the students to continue with tech support and ushers during summer worship.

We met for lunch at the Arlington Haus in Arlington, MN, Ruth Ann Buck was the hostess. Those that joined us were Carol Reiter, Sharon Ban, Lyla Smith, JoAnne Martens, Linda Duzan, Deb Boettcher, Kristi Tullis and Ruth Ann Buck.

After eating our lunch and talking about many things, Kristi brought in several totes of beautiful garden glass flowers. They were very pretty and some of us had to take some home. It is such a great way to use some of the old fancy dishware that we have too much of and a great way to remember who owned the dishware before or at least just like them. Thank you Kristi for sharing your flower making talents with us.

We didn't have an Easter meeting because of Brunch and Easter activities.

Our next meeting will be Thursday May 4th, Lyla is the hostess and has chosen The Pizza Ranch in Le Sueur for our meeting place, if you want to carpool to Le Sueur meet at church at 11:00 or meet at the Pizza Ranch in Le Sueur at 11:30.

Our June meeting is set for June 1st, JoAnne Martens is the hostess, plans are pending.

Secretary,

Ruth Ann Buck
