

Organ Prelude Ringing of the Bell

Call to Worship

On this fine day, look up and out.

See the people yearning for meaning, hungering for truth, searching for God.

Look up and look far.

See the wounded bearing their grief; see the stranger longing to be welcomed; see the frightened fearing another rejection.

Look up and look within.

See the hurt within us that longs to be healed; see the sin that begs for forgiveness; see the timid part of ourselves that desires release and power.

Look up and look deep.

See Christ with arms opened wide, with eyes filled with love, with our name on his lips.

Scripture Readings Luke 23:26

As Jesus was being led away, some soldiers grabbed hold of a man from Cyrene named Simon. He was coming in from the fields, but they put the cross on him and made him carry it behind Jesus.

Luke 23:27-28

A large crowd was following Jesus, and in the crowd a lot of women were crying and weeping for him. ²⁸ Jesus turned to the women and said: Women of Jerusalem, don't cry for me! Cry for yourselves and for your children.
